Manila – The Manila season of Cameron Mackintosh's production of Boublil and Schönberg's LES MISÉRABLES: THE WORLD TOUR SPECTACULAR is officially getting its final extension. Originally set to run from January 20 to February 15, 2026, the international production will now finish its Manila run on March 1, 2026, at The Theatre at Solaire.

When news of the production's arrival in Manila first broke, the response from Filipino audiences was immediate and overwhelming, with thousands signing up for the waitlist ahead of ticket sales. Now, Cameron Mackintosh, in association with Nick Grace Management and GMG Productions is answering that demand with a final two-week extension of this landmark production.

"From the moment we announced LES MISÉRABLES: THE WORLD TOUR SPECTACULAR, it was clear how deeply the show resonated with Filipino audiences", shared GMG Productions' CEO Carlos Candal. "This production is a version of the show that has never been seen before on the Manila stage, and we're thrilled that even more fans will now get the chance to experience it."

LES MISÉRABLES: WORLD TOUR SPECTACULAR is expanded from the hugely successful Les Misérables The Staged Concert, which played for over 200 record-breaking performances in the West End. It features an extraordinary new design and an electrifying production enhanced with new set and lighting designs, bringing Cameron Mackintosh's critically acclaimed production to life on a scale never seen before in Manila, with a company and crew of over 110, including an international all-star cast and a large ensemble of musicians, both Filipino and international, performing live on stage—full casting to be announced soon.

New and final LES MISÉRABLES: WORLD TOUR SPECTACULAR show dates have been released and are now available exclusively through TicketWorld. Don't miss the opportunity to catch LES MISÉRABLES: WORLD TOUR SPECTACULAR at the Theatre at Solaire this coming January 20, 2026, and must close on March 1, 2026.
